Integrated Full-HD Video Conferencing Endpoint

System Overview

This integrated full-HD video conferencing endpoint is a flagship video conferencing system and an ideal choice for small to mid-size meeting rooms. It adopts an integrated, compact, and exquisite design featuring a camera and codec. The endpoint supports dual 1080P full-HD image and OPUS audio coding technology, bringing you a life-like face-to-face experience.

Functions

Powerful built-in MCU

Embedded with a powerful MCU, it lets you create meetings without requiring the purchase of external expensive MCUs (Multi-point Control Units). The endpoint supports 4 sites 30fps @ 1080P or 8 sites 30fps @ 720P, which perfectly satisfies the needs of video conferences and enables efficient communication.

All-in-one Design, easy to deploy

This is a compact system combining a full-HD camera and codec. Its elegant design enables support for hanging mounts, wall mounts, and pendants, making it easy to deploy.

Outstanding full-HD PTZ camera

Benefiting from a 1/2.8" 2.1MP CMOS sensor, the system delivers a 60fps @ 1080P full-HD image. This features a fast, accurate, and stable auto vari-focal lens with up to 12x optical zoom, allowing for viewing wide angle images at a distance.

Strong network adaptability provides seamless experience for low-bandwidth connections

Thanks to our unique anti-packet loss technology, this model ensures normal operation of audio and video in the event of a 30% packet loss or 800ms delay. By supporting a new generation of H.265 encoding technology, the device adapts to different networking requirements and provides a 1080P full-HD image over low bandwidth connections.

- Built-in MCU, supports max 4 sites 30fps @ 1080P, or 8 sites 30fps @ 720P
- Integrated design, 60fps @ 1080P and 12x optical PTZ camera
- Latest H.265 video encoding protocols provides 4K UHD display (optional)
- Unique anti-packet loss technology ensures normal operation of audio and video in the event of a 30% packet loss
- Standard H.323 and SIP protocols. Record meetings onto USB drive
- Provides a variety of conference call modes and installation modes, making it simple to operate and easy to maintain

Open standard, compatible interoperability

Conforming to ITU-T H.323 and IETF SIP communication standards, this model supports industry standard A/V encoding technologies and achieves seamless interconnection with products that meet international standards. Meanwhile, it achieves integration with security products which conforms to industry standard.

Rich functionality delivers easy use

It can connect to networks via Wi-Fi, making it easy to adapt to various meeting scenarios. An LED screen displays meeting site information (IP address) in real-time, providing easy maintenance.

Record meetings onto USB drives

Powerful meeting recording enables you to archive real-time meetings, which is crucial for meeting reviews. With this, all you need is a USB drive to record meeting video.

Accurate real-time information sharing

It supports 1080P full-HD dual stream to simultaneously transmit and receive video and documents. The device allows users to share and edit documents, PPTs, and other information in real-time, providing effective visual communication.
